Rubber gloves are one of your kitchen essentials. Why not customise a pair of them in your favorite fabric its really easy!! My pair of rubber gloves bring a smile to my face, whenever I see them dangling over the sink!

① Cut a strip of fabric with pinky shears to three times the circumference of the top of the glove cuff.

② Run a running stitch along the strip of fabric and gather the material, so it fits the cuff.

Leave room to overlap the material

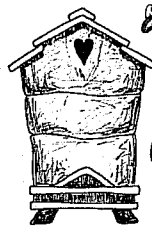

③ Press the gathers on the strip with an iron

④ Cut the cuffs of the gloves with the pinking shears.

⑤ Turn the rubber gloves the wrong side out and pin the pleated / gathered strip around the cuff.

⑥ Stitch together. Now is the time to add a ribbon if you want

⑦ Pin together the ends of the gathered strip, where they meet to make a band. Stitch, then turn gloves the right side out.

Hey Presto!! - rubber gloves to make you smile!!
